

Law Enforcement & Neighborhood Watch

Volunteer Awards Announced

2010 Outstanding Achievement in Law Enforcement Volunteer Programs Award

The International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP) and Science Applications International Corporation (SAIC) sponsor an annual award to recognize law enforcement agencies that have developed creative and effective volunteer programs. The award recognizes agencies that most exemplify the goals, concepts, and spirit of volunteerism in action. To learn about last year's winners and access the 2010 application, go to the IACP website.
<http://www.theiacp.org/About/Awards/OutstandingVolunteerProgramsHonored/tabid/282/Default.aspx>

Neighborhood Watch Awards of Excellence Program

The Neighborhood Watch Awards of Excellence Program was established by the National Sheriffs' Association (NSA) in 2004 to recognize and honor those law enforcement agencies, Neighborhood Watches, states, organizations, and programs that are doing extraordinary things to promote Neighborhood Watches (NW) in their communities. These awards are based upon data collected and verified by the National Sheriffs' Association. For more information on eligibility, categories, criteria, and application forms please visit the Neighborhood Watch website.
<http://www.usaonwatch.org/about/awards.aspx>